CENTER FOR OCCUPATIONAL AND PHYSICAL THERAPY

A teaching center where ATSU's occupational and physical therapy students offer no-cost treatment under the supervision of faculty. The center is operated and directed by students, providing leadership opportunities and experience through service on the Student Board.

SERVICE LEARNING PROJECT

All students complete a project related to improving the health of the community. Each project is led and supervised by a faculty member and allows students to engage directly with community members.

LEADERSHIP DEVELOPMENT

The program supports student participation in state and national meetings of the American Physical Therapy Association at multiple points in the curriculum.

PHYSICAL THERAPY RESIDENCY PROGRAMS

After graduation and passing the national board exam, elevate your clinical skills and knowledge from a general practitioner to that of a clinical specialist by enrolling in our neurologic or orthopedic physical therapy residency programs.
