|                       |   |                                     | Excellent  | Good   | Fair                 | Poor              |                                |
|-----------------------|---|-------------------------------------|--|--|----------------------|-------------------|--------------------------------|
| GradeDistribution | 2023 CCC GradingCriteria/Rubric   | Justification for "Excellent" grade | Wellthoughtout, welldescribed;complete | MostlyComplete   | SomewhatComplete | Noinformation | Justification for "Poor" grade |
|                       |   |                                     | 3  | 2  | 1                    | 0                 |                                |
| 60%                   | Illustrate how the team has placed the interests of the patient and family at the center of interprofessional care delivery (VE1)   |                                     |  | <ul> <li>Name the patient and key relatives as members of the team.</li> <li>Identify family issues; describe how they are acknowledged and included in planning and plan implementation.</li> </ul>   |                      |                   |                                |
|                       | <ol> <li>Describe the composition of the plannedcare team, identifying the roles andresponsibilities and unique expertise ofthose involved. (VE4, RR4, RR5)</li> </ol> |                                     |  | <ul> <li>Names at least 5 needed team members/disciplines</li> <li>Identifies team members for different stages of care</li> <li>Identifies unique roles for each discipline/setting.</li> </ul>   |                      |                   |                                |
|                       | 3. Indicated how the team will ensure effective teamwork. (TT4, TT10)   |                                     |  | <ul> <li>Someone is designated "casemanager."</li> <li>Describe specific teammember responsibilities.</li> </ul>   |                      |                   |                                |
|                       | 4. Presented strategies to ensure effective communication. (CC8)  |                                     |  | Plan for specific form andtiming of communication (e-mail, phone, concerns).   |                      |                   |                                |
|                       | 5. Described how the team planned for quality improvement and patient safety . (QI/PS) (RR5, TT9)   |                                     |  | <ul> <li>Describe methods fortracking treatments andmonitoring effect to assureimprovement.</li> <li>Redundancy planned for.</li> </ul>   |                      |                   |                                |
| 25%                   | 6. Reflection on group collaboration (TT8)   |                                     |  | <ul> <li>How did the student teamwork together?</li> <li>Challenges; strengths; areas/strategies for improvement.</li> </ul>   |                      |                   |                                |
| 15%                   | 7. Presentation skills  |                                     |  | <ul> <li>Introduction and summary</li> <li>Visual aids - organized/readable/professional</li> <li>Professional dress/manner</li> <li>Clear, audible voices</li> <li>Eye contact/ posture/ facial expressions</li> <li>Smooth transitions, well-rehearsed; each member contrributes equally.</li> </ul> |                      |                   |                                |